We've Got Your Back

Don't face the complexities of identity theft alone:

- Control and manage. ID Watchdog has got you covered with alerts on identity-related vulnerabilities and lock features for added control over your credit report(s).
- Monitor and detect. By monitoring your credit and billions of data points, ID Watchdog will help keep you informed of changes and activity related to your personal information.
- Support and restore. If you become a victim of identity theft, you don't have to face it alone. A certified resolution specialist will fully manage your case until your identity is restored.

1. We will require you to provide your payment information when you sign up. We will immediately charge your card the stated price above and will charge the card that amount for each month you continue your subscription. You may cancel at any time; however, we do not provide partial month refunds.
